(i) PEDDLING

11-1-91. Peddling; regulating; permit; required; exceptions.

It shall be unlawful for any person traveling by foot, wagon, automotive or other type of vehicle from place to place, house to house, or street to street, carrying or transporting goods, meats, fish, vegetables fruits, garden truck, farm products or provisions, offering and exposing the same for sale, or making sales and delivering articles to purchasers, or who, without traveling from place to place, shall sell or offer the same for sale from an automotive vehicle, railroad car, or other vehicle, or for anyone who solicits orders and as a separate transaction makes deliveries to purchasers, without first obtaining a permit therefor as provided for in this Article. Provided, the provisions of this section shall not apply:

- (1) to properly authorized selling on behalf of established and organized churches or other established and organized religious organizations, of any educational institution or organized charity, or of societies incorporated under the laws of the State of Nebraska, or
- (2) to transactions exempt as constituting interstate commerce. Such carrying or transporting shall be done only between the hours of 6:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. (Ord. 1116)

11-1-92. Same; application.

Applicants for a permit required by section 11-1-91 shall file with the City Clerk a sworn application in writing, on a form prescribed by the City Clerk, which shall include the following information:

- (1) name, description and address of applicant,
- (2) a brief description of the nature of the business and the goods to be sold and, in the case of products of farm or orchard, whether produced or grown by the applicant,
- (3) if employed, the name and address of the employer, and
- (4) identification of any automotive vehicle to be used.

11-1-93. Same; investigation; permit issuance.

Upon receipt of such application, the Police Chief may cause such investigation of the applicant's moral character in business dealings to be made as it deems necessary for the protection of the public with whom the applicant may deal. If, as a result of such investigation, the applicant is found to be a person who is of good moral character in business dealings, the Police Chief shall issue a permit, addressed to the applicant, for the carrying on of the business applied for and cause the permit, together with the application, to be transmitted to the City Clerk, who shall, upon payment of the prescribed permit fee, deliver the permit to the applicant. Such permit shall contain the signature of the issuing officer and shall show the name and address of the applicant, the kind of goods permitted to be sold thereunder, the amount of fee paid, the date of issuance and the length of time the permit shall be operative, and the license number and other identifying description of any vehicle used in such peddling. The Clerk shall keep a permanent record of all permits issued.

11-1-94. Same; fees.

The fee for a permit for peddling shall be as provided in Chapter 6, Article 6. (Ord. 3341, 1994)

11-1-95. Same; permit; denial.

If, as a result of such an investigation, the applicant is found not to be a person who is of good moral character in business dealings, the Police Chief shall cause to be endorsed upon the application the finding to that effect, together with a statement of the reasons therefor, and shall cause the application so endorsed to be transmitted to the City Clerk, who shall notify the applicant that the application has been denied and that the requested permit will not be issued.

11-1-96. Same; permit; revocation.

Permits issued under the provisions of this Article may be revoked by the City Manager, after notice and hearing, for any of the following causes:

- (1) fraud, misrepresentation, or false statement contained in the application or made in the course of carrying on the permitted business as peddler,
- (2) any violation of this Article,
- (3) conviction of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude (whether occurring before or after the permit is issued), or

(4) conducting the business of peddling in an unlawful manner, or in such manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or to constitute a menace to the health, safety, or general welfare of the public. Notice of the hearing for revocation of a license shall be given in writing, shall set forth specifically the grounds of complaint and the time and place of hearing, and shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the permittee at his last known address at least five (5) days prior to the date set for hearing.
