Please join us for the

MAYOR’S PRAYER BREAKFAST

May 3, 2018 at 6:45 a.m. at the

Gering Civic Center

TICKETS are $7.00 and can be purchased at the Gering Civic Center and the City of Scottsbluff through May 1st. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

Guest Speaker
Mayor Randy Meininger

This will be the last year that Mayor Meininger will be addressing this gathering as Mayor. In recognizing this year’s theme of Unity, Mayor Meininger will be sharing his journey over the past year in dealing with an unexpected diagnosis of cancer in his son. “I am humbled and excited to share with the community what the power of prayer can do” - Randy

On April 17, 1952, President Harry Truman signed a bill proclaiming the National Day of Prayer into law. President Reagan amended the law in 1988, designating the first Thursday of May each year as the National Day of Prayer.

Please join the Mayors of Gering, Scottsbluff and Terrytown for the Mayor’s Prayer Breakfast on May 3rd in conjunction with the National Day of Prayer.

Tickets are $7.00 and can be purchased at the Gering Civic Center, 1050 M Street, and the City of Scottsbluff through May 1st. Tickets will not be sold at the door.

Enjoy a delicious breakfast buffet, Scripture readings, prayer and entertainment by the Summit Christian College Choir. Boy Scout Troop 5 will lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Scottsbluff’s Mayor, Randy Meininger, will be the guest speaker.

The national and local events are designed to encourage united prayer for family, our military, our government, our churches, education, the media and business.
